AIMS AND SCOPE

How can we re-imagine society in an era of climate change, pandemic, hunger, poverty, questions of racial, ethnic and gender justice and other pressing social challenges?

Significant threats and dangers lie ahead of us, but so do opportunities, as new ways of being, thinking, and doing emerge. This new fully open access journal aims to facilitate thinking about these positive new trajectories and become the journal of choice to address the complexities of global social challenges across disciplines and fields.

It will be the first such journal to be grounded in the social sciences whilst also engaging with research from humanities, arts and STEM.

The journal publishes on the following themes linked to, but not limited by, the UN's Sustainable Development Goals:

- Cities and communities
- Climate change, energy and sustainability
- Conflict, security and peace
- Democracy, power and governance
- Education and learning
- Equality, diversity and inclusion
- The future of work, finance and the economy
- Health and wellbeing
- Hunger, food, water and shelter
- Interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary approaches
- Justice, law and human rights
- Life stages and intergenerationality
- Migration, mobilities and movement
- Poverty, inequality and social Justice
- Society, culture and arts
- Technology, data and society

"This brand new journal aims at engaging the full range of 'social' conditions we confront. I fully support this opening up of a broader domain than has been the usual in the social sciences."

Publish in Global Social Challenges Journal

Be amongst the first to publish in this innovative new journal. We are seeking accessible research that breaks academic silos to tackle complex issues, and offer a forum for alternative interventions, including Policy and Practice, Debates and Provocations.

No open access funding?
No problem!

Authors without OA funding who submit before 31 December 2022 will have their Article Processing Charges waived. Thereafter, we will continue to offer discounts and waivers for those without funding and those from countries in the low, medium and high UN Human Development categories.
